PATRONAL WEEKEND

SATURDAY 30th MAY

CENTENARY ORGAN CONCERT at 7.30pm in St Mary's Church to commemorate the building of our organ in 1915 for Brimington Baptist Chapel, Chesterfield and its subsequent relocation to St Mary's in 1967.

The concert will also be a memorial to the life of local organ builder and restorer Robert Shaftoe, who lovingly maintained and completely rebuilt the instrument in 2006.

The Concert will be given by the well-known local organist and composer Paul Edwards.

TICKETS £8 FROM THE COMMUNITY SHOP OR SEE THE VILLAGE WEBSITE www.stevington.org.uk

SUNDAY 31st MAY

PATRONAL CHORAL EVENSONG and BLESSING OF THE HOLY WELL at 5.00pm in St Mary's Church, led by Canon Peter Mackenzie to celebrate the Patronal Festival, followed by Refreshments

WELL DRESSING

All are welcome to the preparation of the Well Dressing in the Church Room from Wednesday 27th May from 10am to be displayed at St Mary's at the Patronal Weekend.

Children will design and make their own Dressing.
